

Youth organization "Peacemaker» from Sevastopol (Ukraine) is looking for EVS volunteers and partners from Program countries Youth organization "Peacemaker» from Sevastopol (Ukraine) is looking for:

- Young people, interested in realization of EVS projects in Sevastopol (Ukraine),
- Partners from Program countries for cooperation within hosting and sending EVS.

Tasks for EVS volunteer:

- support in creation and work of the information resource centre «Center of the European integration of youth Sevastopol»
- Support in implementation of All-Ukrainian charity project "Heart to Heart",
- Help children learn the English language and civil education in the project "Access to grants for learning English - Access» ;
- Carrying out of "School of the young leader» and programs directed on a youth secular education;
- Assist in establishing international cooperation with non-governmental organizations that are in the city of Sevastopol and the European Union.
- Assist in the construction of a system of international youth exchange with countries of the European Union;
- Carrying out of meetings, seminars, trainings with a student's active of Sevastopol, an exchange of experience in development of student self-government;
- Assistance in implementation of projects under the program "Youth in Action;
- Promote the establishment of European clubs in schools of Sevastopol and assistance in establishing cooperation with European clubs from the European Union countries.
- assist in the implementation of cultural events (World Day of Social Justice, Week of Solidarity with the peoples struggling against racism and racial discrimination, International Day of Europe, Youth Day , The International Day for Tolerance etc)

A volunteer can perform all these tasks, or select a few projects at the request of the organization and help them realize

Project duration: From November 2010 to August 2011

More information about the city, please visit: www.sevastopol.info

More information about the organization "Peacemaker", see this link: www.Mirotvorec.info

Contact person:

Andrew Geftman, head of the Sevastopol city public organization "The Peacemaker"

tel. (067) 7591189, (099) 9670772,

Skype: geftmanandrey

e-mail: geftman@mail.ru